Join Auburn Symphony Orchestra musicians for an intimate concert experience – Jan. 24 at Kent Lutheran and Jan. 26 at St. Matthew's Episcopal in Auburn.

The relationship between Johannes Brahms and Clara Schumann, wife of the composer Robert Schumann, is one for the ages. Was their relationship a friendship? A love triangle? Something more, something less? This program brings together the sublime music of both Brahms and Clara in this most complicated of musical relationships.

This concert program includes Clara Schumann's Piano Trio No. 1 and Johannes Brahms's Trio for Clarinet, Cello, and Piano, Op. 114.

Featured Auburn Symphony musicians are clarinetist Denise Lum, violinist Emilie Choi, cellist Brian Wharton, and pianist Tanya Stambuk.

At a Chamber Concert like this audience members can enjoy a more intimate experience and get up close to the musicians in a smaller setting.

Reserved seats can be purchased in advance or the day of the concert. Parking is free. This concert is sponsored in part by the City of Auburn. Tickets and information can be found at auburnsymphony.org or by calling the Auburn Symphony office at 253-887-7777.

Auburn Symphony's next chamber concert is Uncommon Voices: Music for Woodwind Quintet on March 6 and 8.
